11 Barratt Street, Blackheath

SUPERB DA APPROVED BLOCK WITH EXISTING STUDIO!

Located in one of Blackheath's most quiet and sought-after pockets is this superb 619sqms garden block with two bonuses – an existing studio and DA approval for a stunning, contemporary home.

If you're drawn to Blackheath for the surrounding nature, you won't be disappointed. The block is just 750 metres to Pope's Glen walking track, 900 metres to the start of Braeside walking track and 1.5kms to Govetts Leap Lookout.

If it's the food and restaurant scene you're attracted to, Blackheath village is less than 1.7kms away where there's also the convenience of the Train Station.

Or perhaps it's the beautiful period homes, wide streets and stunning trees that line them. Either way, Barratt Street has you covered!

Nestled amongst established gardens including an apple tree, silver birch, English Elm, Japanese Maples, rhododendrons and azaleas is a humble & tidy studio which could make a wonderful weekend retreat. If you're already local, it could make a great space to work from. And of course, if you do decide to build, it will be a handy site shed!

The working water tower will always be a conversation starter amongst friends but there's also town water connected. As well as electricity and
